Assistant Professors (Promotions).

Q.—116. Sri S. SRINIVASA
IYENGAR (T.-Narsipur).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) whether the Hon'ble the Education Minister in answer to a question in the last Budget Session had assured me that the resolution of the University Council two years ago in connection with the creation of Supernumerary Assistant Professorship
in the University of Mysore, be considered most sympathetically;

(b) if so, what action has been taken;

(c) whether the Government are aware that recently the Vice-Chancellor of the Mysore University promoted several Lecturers to the cadre of Assistant Professors and Assistant
Professors to that of Professors;

(d) if so, what is the principle
adopted;

(e) what the total number of vacancies was in the cadre of Assistant Professors that existed prior to the filling in by the Vice-Chancellor;

(f) the names of those Lecturers or Assistant Professors who have been promoted as Assistant Professors or Professors as the case may be and the number of years of service put in by each of them and their qualifications;

(g) the number of Lecturers or Assistant Professors that each promoted candidate has superseded?

A.—Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO
(Minister for Law and Education).—

(a) Yes.

(SRI A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.)

(b) The matter is under active consideration of Government.

(c) Yes.

(d) The Government have vested the power of temporary appointments for a period of six months in the University Council and the University Council by their Resolution dated 1st—2nd July 1954 have delegated the power to the Vice-Chancellor subject to report to Council.

The temporary appointments have been made keeping in view the principles laid down by Government.

These appointments are of a temporary character not exceeding six months and “temporary promotions shall not in any way be made a ground for making permanent promotions”.

The Vice-Chancellor kept in view these Government Orders, seniority, exigencies of the Department, and the need to avoid dislocation of academic work as far as possible.

Recommendations will have to be made by the Standing Committee for appointments, considered by the University Council and sanctioned by Government.

(e) Assistant Professors ... 19

(f) Statement appended below.

(g) Supersession does not arise as the appointments are only for a short period and shall not constitute a ground for permanent promotion.

Sri S. SRINIVASA IYENGAR.—You have been pleased to give answer to (b) that the matter is under the active consideration of the Government. May I know from how long this resolution of the University Council referred to in sub-clause (a) is under the active consideration of the Government?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—Since November 1952.

Sri S. SRINIVASA IYENGAR.—May I know what the difficulties are that are coming in the way of the Government arriving at a quick decision?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—Question of finance on one side and of having an examination made of the conditions in other departments on the other side.

Sri S. SRINIVASA IYENGAR.—What was the total number of long standing lecturers that were proposed to be appointed as Supernumerary Assistant Professors according to the recommendation of the University Council two years ago?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—46 or 47.

Sri S. SRINIVASA IYENGAR.—When there were 19 vacancies to be filled in, why did not the Vice-Chancellor fill up these vacancies with seniormost lecturers whose names had already been recommended by the University Council in their resolution referred to above?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—We are examining that aspect also.

Sri S. SRINIVASA IYENGAR.—When a junior lecturer who was a student of the senior lecturer is promoted as Assistant Professor even temporarily while the senior lecturer remains as lecturer, if it is not supersession, what else do the Government or the Vice-Chancellor term it?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—Each case will have to be examined on its merits.

Sri S. SRINIVASA IYENGAR.—Has it come to the notice of the Government that the University Council have recommended the promotion of temporary Assistant Professors to the posts of permanent Professors entirely overlooking the claims of senior permanent Assistant Professors available for being promoted?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—No.

Sri S. SRINIVASA IYENGAR.—Has it come to the notice of the Government that conventions, University Commission recommendations and Government orders have been contravened and will the Government take steps to institute an enquiry into these matters?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—Government will examine the position and as to whether an enquiry is necessary we will consider.

Sri B. V. NARAYANA REDDY.—Is it by seniority alone this selection is made?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—No.

Sri B. V. NARAYANA REDDY.—Has not the Vice-Chancellor powers to select like that, temporarily at least?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—Yes, when authorised by the University Council.

Mysore University (Reorganization.)

Q. 351.—Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK (Molakalmuru).—

Will the Government be pleased to state:—

(a) whether they propose to make the University of Mysore an autonomous one;

(b) whether there is any bill under preparation for reorganising the system of University Education;

(c) whether they have taken into consideration the reports of late Sri C. R. Reddy and also of Dr. Radhakrishnan in order to implement Educational Reforms in the State;

(d) whether they propose to conform to the scales of pay as proposed by the University Grants Commission in Mysore University also;

(e) what is the additional financial implication if the proposals of the University Grants Commission are given effect to?

A.—Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO (Minister for Law and Education).—

(a) The question is under examination.

(b) Yes.

(c) Yes.

(d) Under examination.

(e) Does not arise in view of reply to (d) above.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—Sir, what is the suggestion of the University Grants Commission in this respect? Are proposals made by the University Grants Commission in the matter of making the University of Mysore an autonomous one?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—The suggestion is to make it autonomous.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—Except for the grant being made to the University Council, will the other provisions that are existing now, continue unaffected?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—There is the University Council and necessary provisions are there.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—Would it not be very beneficial and in the interest of Mysore to get grants from the University Grants Commission by granting autonomy to the University of Mysore? Would it not be beneficial and would it not be in the interest of Mysoreans?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—Certainly, if we get additional funds, it will be beneficial.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—What are the proposals under consideration for re-organising the system of University Education?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—The matter is under consideration.

Sri A. BHEEMAPPA NAIK.—What are the proposals, may I know?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—I cannot disclose it at present.

Sri Mulka GOVINDA REDDY.—What are the scales of pay proposed by the University Grants Commission?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—I want notice for that.

Sri Mulka GOVINDA REDDY.—Are the Government aware, Sir, that the scales of pay prevailing in Mysore University are much lower than what are prevailing in any other Universities?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—They are.

Sri Mulka GOVINDA REDDY.—What is the difficulty in getting grants from the University Grants Commission of the Government of India?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—They insist on the University being autonomous.

Sri Mulka GOVINDA REDDY.—Why not the Government of Mysore make the University autonomous as proposed by the Educational Reforms Committee in Mysore State?

Sri A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.—Government is examining that position.

Sri M. V. RAMA RAO.—I invite reference to your replies to part (d) and (e) of the question; may I know whether Government are examining the proposal
